-Matthew 2:10

Thursday, November 6th, &
Friday, November 7th,
at 6:30PM

Saturday, November 8th, &
Sunday, November 9th,
at 6:00PM

"You changed my mourning into dancing; You took off my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness, that my soul might sing praise to you without ceasing; O Lord, my God forever will I give you thanks."

- Psalm 30: 11—12

Dearest Friends,

We are excited and pleased to welcome you to Georgia Christian Dance Theatre's 30th-anniversary performance of Star of Wonder! We want to thank you for giving us the opportunity to share with you the true meaning of Christmas; the birth of Jesus.

This show has become a rich, beautiful tradition at GCDT and we enjoy sharing this message with our Buford School of Ballet family. We wish you all the hope, peace, joy, and love of Christ in your hearts always.

I hope you enjoy the show!

Best Wishes this Christmas Season,

Savannah Botts

Artistic Director

Buford School of Ballet, Georgia Christian Dance Theatre, Inc.

History of the Advent Wreath

Like so many of our Christian customs, the Advent Wreath is an adaptation of an ancient practice that dates back to Pre-Christian times. Candles were lit around a wheel during the festival of the winter solstice to celebrate the return of gradually lengthening daylight. The Advent Wreath retains this circular shape with four candles. These candles now represent the four weeks of Advent in glad anticipation of the birth of Jesus. Advent culminates with Christ's coming. To celebrate this great event, the white candle symbolizes Christ's birth, and is lit on Christmas Day.

Georgia Christian Dance Theatre

What is Georgia Christian Dance Theatre?

Georgia Christian Dance Theatre, the official company of the Buford School of Ballet, was founded in 1997 by Bernadette Campbell as a pre-professional dance company. The program strives to create a Christian environment for the dancers, recognizing that the gift of dance comes from God. The company serves as a performing outlet for talented and dedicated young dancers, as well as a stepping-stone for those who wish to pursue dance at a college level or a professional career.

Special Guests

Nick Clark

Nick Clark is an Atlanta-based actor who graduated from Florida State University in May 2021 (BFA, Acting/Entrepreneurship Minor; Summa Cum Laude). You may recognize him from Lifetime's "Who is Killing the Cheerleaders" or the heart-warming Publix Thanksgiving commercial about a college boy who returns home for the holidays and shares pie with his mom. Nick is very grateful to continue his relationship with Buford School of Ballet and reprise his roles as Drosselmeyer and Joseph. He has very big shoes to fill...

Grandpa Mike, this one's for you!

Keep up with Nick at www.goodnickclark.com and on IG @goodnickclark. Merry Christmas!

Sam Carper

Samuel Carper from Ada, Oklahoma started his dance journey with tap with David Pershica at the age of 11. After he moved to Savannah, Georgia he then began his ballet training with Armando Luna at age 14. After high school, he trained with Charlotte Ballet for two years under the direction of Laszlo Berdo, Kati Mayo, and the legendary Patricia McBride. Since he has started Sam has had the opportunity to perform in The Nutcracker, Who Cares, Allegro Brilliant, and the Tchaikovsky Pas De Deux.

A special Thank You to...
